

Alderman Middleton Attacked

Unknown Assailant Leaves Him With Both Jaws Broken In Two Places

Frank Middleton, 70 years old, city councilman from the First ward, was seriously injured sometime after 9 o'clock Sunday night, when attacked by an unknown assailant and robbed. He received a multiple fracture of the lower jaw, the jaw bone being fractured in two places on both sides.

Mr. Middleton was knocked unconscious and it was sometime before he revived and made his way to his home, 321 North Prospect avenue. Police were called at 9:37 o'clock. When questioned Mr. Middleton was unable to tell when he was hit nor was he able to recall where he was at the time he was struck.

He, at no time, saw the person who struck him.

According to Mrs. Middleton, Mr. Middleton usually takes a short walk in the evening before retiring. He had left home about 9 o'clock in the evening, walked south on Prospect to Main street, then turned west on Main street, walked to Quincy, turned south and that is all he remembers.

Stumbled Home
Mrs. Middleton said that about 9:30 o'clock she heard someone stumble on the front porch and went to find her husband entering the house. She does not know if anyone found him and accompanied him home, or if he made his way home by himself. Mr. Middleton's injuries were such that he could recall nothing other than leaving home and reaching Main and Quincy avenue.

This morning police received a call that a partial plate of false teeth, believed to belong to Mr. Middleton, was found on the lawn in front of 208 South Prospect avenue. His glasses were also found. Mr. Middleton lost his billfold with one dollar in cash and some keys, one of which was to his automobile.

Mr. Middleton, accompanied by Mrs. Middleton, left this afternoon for Kansas City, where he will consult a bone specialist.

Silver Star to Cpl. J. E. Ross

Cpl. Jack E. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ross, 776 East Eastwood, Marshall, Mo., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Thompson, 423 South New York avenue, has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action in France.

The citation which has been received by his parents reads:

"By direction of the President and under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45 22 September 1943 as amended, the Silver Star has been awarded to Corporal Jack E. Ross, Field Artillery, United States Army, for gallantry in action in France on August 1, 1944. Encountering enemy machine gun fire he dismounted, attempted to neutralize the enemy with hand grenades and small arms fire, and then proceeded to a point where he could direct fire on the position and thus accelerate the advance of his unit. His resourcefulness and bravery are a credit to him and the armed forces."

Cpl. Ross entered the service with the 128th Field Artillery of the National Guards from Boonville. The family formerly resided in Boonville.

Cpl. Ross is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Shaburg, 1421 West Tenth street.

Sgt. Howerton Wins Awards

Staff Sgt. Elvis E. Howerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Howerton, 1534 South Grand avenue, and husband of Mrs. Melinda Howerton, has completed fifty missions over enemy territory in Italy and has been awarded the air medal and the Oak Leaf cluster for meritorious achievement against the enemy. He is an aerial gunner with a B-24 Liberator Bomber group operating from an advanced air base in Italy. He played a vital part in Northern Italy with assaults on industrial communications.

St. Sgt. Howerton, who has been in service two years in October, made his last mission on August 22 and wrote his family that he expected to be home soon. It will be his first time home since he went in service. He has been overseas since January of this year and in July spent a week on the Isle of Capri, rest resort for combat flyers.

There They Go, and

Here They Come

Government Will Look After War Veterans as They Return

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series on veterans' benefits, ranging from demobilization to jobs and pensions.)

By James Marlow
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—When Johnny comes marching home from this war he will not be like the returning veterans of other American wars—a Johnny come-lately.

For the veterans of this war—able and disabled—the government has done more faster than for the fighters of any previous war.

When he is discharged he will get:

Full back pay at the time of his discharge; an additional $100 to $300 in mustering out pay, depending on his length of service; railroad fare home; schooling, if he wants it; vocational training and a pension if he is disabled; a government guarantee of loans up to $2,000 to buy a home or a farm or a business; a guarantee of his job back except in unusual circumstances; assistance in finding a new job; unemployment pay if he can't find a job; special consideration in seeking federal civil service jobs; hospitalization for illness due to service regardless of ability to pay and hospitalization for any cause if he can't pay; and free legal advice in certain matters.

Relatives Looked After
And there are pensions for his close dependent survivors if the war caused his death.

Not all these benefits are new. But as Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, says:

Financial benefits for disabled veterans of this war and dependents "are starting out at the rates which it took World War I veterans and dependents 26 years to obtain."

It has taken at least four great wars to prod the government into doing for the veterans—before they became veterans and the war was over—all of the things mentioned above, needed to ease them back into civilian life.

The history of our treatment of our veterans has often been stumbling, stupid, slow and callous.

Collapses After Funeral
Mrs. John M. Boomgard, 1412 West Fifth street, whose husband, Lt. Boomgard, an instructor at the Sedalia Army Air Field, was killed in a crash on September 17, is ill, collapsed after her husband's death and burial and was taken to Kansas City this afternoon for medical treatment. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Helen B. Nicholson, of Hollywood, Calif., and an escort from the air base.

Mrs. Boomgard, accompanied by her mother, and a military escort from SAAF attended Lieut. Boomgard's funeral services and burial in Cincinnati, Ohio.

It was upon her return to Sedalia that she became ill. As soon as she was able she will accompany her mother to Hollywood, Calif., there to make her home.

Elwood Fischer Gives Himself up
Elwood Fischer, Third street and Washington avenue, who has been sought by the local police since Saturday night, Sept. 2, in connection with the fatal shooting of James Greer and the cutting of several Negroes, gave himself up to the local police at 4 o'clock this morning.

Fischer was wanted for questioning in connection with the assaults as a witness. He disappeared on Sunday, Sept. 3, going to St. Louis it was said.

He is being held in the county jail pending investigation.

Shed On Fire
The fire companies at 12:04 o'clock this afternoon were called to the residence of Aubrey Cramer, 1215 East Ninth street, where a shed had caught fire from some undetermined origin. Damage of about $150 resulted to the shed and about $25 to the contents.

Marines Had no Idea Who Was Inside That Cave

PELELIU ISLAND, Sept. 25.—(AP)—(Via Navy Radio)—Joe Rosenthal, Associated Press photographer, was exploring a captured Japanese cave extending through Umorobogol mountain when Marines started tossing in grenades from the other side.

Rosenthal's companions called out, "knock it off."

The Marines outside shouted back, "you damn fool souvenir hunters have no business in there. You'd better clear out."

"That," Rosenthal remarked later, "made the two colonels with me pretty sore."

George Young Fatally Hurt, Dies in France

Well Known Young Railroad Man Was In Railroad Group

George Marshall Young, known to his friends as "Toots" and "Young Brigham" and son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Young, route 2, Sedalia, was fatally injured in a train collision while in the service of his country in France on September 5, according to a message received Sunday by his wife, 317 West Tenth street.

The message follows:

"Mrs. George M. Young, 317 West Tenth Street

"The secretary of war asks that I assure you of his deep sympathy in the loss of your husband, Sgt. T/4 George M. Young. Reports received are that he died September 5 in France as a result of injuries received in a railroad collision. A letter follows.

"J. A. Ulio, Adjutant General."

Sgt. Young was born in Sedalia on September 7, 1907, the son of George S. and Lillian Schoell Young. He attended the public schools here and the Smith-Cotton high school and was married on November 1, 1942 to Miss Julia Ann Miller in Sedalia.

Followed Father's Occupation

From early childhood he had wanted to be a railroad man, which was his father's occupation. He spent a great deal of time around the trains and railroad men, with whom he was a favorite. When he was old enough he entered the employ of the Missouri Pacific as a fireman, the road on which his father is an engineer. He entered the army on July 7, 1943, at Fort Leavenworth and since that time has been in the railway battalion. During his training period he was stationed at several camps in the south and had arrived overseas a few days before being killed. He was an engineer in the railway operation battalion in France. A message was received recently by his wife of his safe arrival overseas and a few days later she received the first letter from overseas, which was dated September 3.

Sgt. Young was a member of the Epworth Methodist church, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, No. 178, Sedalia and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen in Jefferson City.

Surviving besides his wife and parents, are four aunts, Mrs. Edith Dixon, Sedalia; Miss Opal Schoell, Los Angeles, Calif.; Miss Blanche Young and Mrs. Daisy Boggs, both of Holden and one uncle, John H. Young of St. Louis.

Students Are Pledged to Phi Delta Theta Fraternity
Charles Walter, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Walter, 1000 West Seventh street, and David Hicks, of New York, whose father, Wilson Hicks, is a former Sedalian, are students at the University of Missouri, and have been pledged to the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Altar Society Meets Thursday
The Altar Society of Sacred Heart church will meet in the school hall at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, at which time there will be installation of the new officers. Mrs. J. E. Hurley will preside. Refreshments will be served.

Left Purse in Car
She had a small coin purse with her and it was in the car. When the man struck her she did not take time to retrieve her purse, jumping out and running away from the car. The man was in the back seat and evidently received over, took control of the car and after getting in the front seat drove off without any attempt to catch her.

Mrs. Vickrey gave a good description of the man to police and State Patrol officers, and from his conversation, it is believed he resides in Kansas City.

The car according to a report received by the police this afternoon from State Troopers L. L. Amos and Peter Stohr, has been located in a ditch in Johnson county. It was evident the car had been driven west out of Green Ridge.

Slugs Woman Taxi Driver, Takes Auto
Passenger Was Supposedly on Way To Green Ridge

Mrs. Nadine Vickrey, 1214 South Massachusetts avenue, driver for the Atlas Taxi Cab Co., was slugged, robbed of her money and the 1937 Plymouth automobile which she was driving, by her passenger about 5:30 o'clock Sunday evening. The assailant struck her as she drove near the Camp Branch school house, southwest of Sedalia.

Mrs. Vickrey had picked up her passenger and was given an order to drive him to the home of relatives near Green Ridge. She was driving along, carrying on a conversation with the man, when he suddenly hit her on the head with a beer bottle. Mrs. Vickrey opened the car door on her side of the car and jumped out, letting the car go.

Twelve Die in Maneuvers
CAMP MACKALL, N. C., Sept. 26.—(AP)—Eight paratroopers and four crewmen were killed last night in the crash of a C-47 transport plane during a mass parachute jump as a part of troop-carrier airborne maneuvers in this area, the public relations office announced today.

Four paratroopers leaped to safety. Headquarters announced that thirty men required medical treatment in the mass jump, largest night jump ever held in this country.

A board of inquiry will investigate the accident. Names of the victims will be announced later. Thousands of paratroopers last night plummeted behind the lines of the Red army and formed the spearhead of the Blue forces moving toward the Mackall landing strip.

More Yanks Cross Frontier; Continue Air Attacks on P. I.

Former Japanese Commander Calls Upon Filipinos to Crush Aggressors

By Leonard Millman
Associated Press War Editor

Tokyo radio reported continuing air attacks on the Philippines by seaborne American planes which Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said had smashed Japan's Philippine-based Air force and routed the defending fleet from its bases.

A vicious two-day raid centered around Manila, Admiral Nimitz announced last night, destroyed 357 Japanese planes, 40 ships and 6 small craft. Forty-six other ships, 11 small craft and two floating drydocks were probably sunk or damaged. Ground facilities were "extensively damaged."

"This daring and highly successful strike," last Thursday and Friday (Manila time), Nimitz said, cost Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher's forces 11 planes and 15 airmen.

Tokyo reported the carrier planes were back Sunday (Manila time), hitting at Cebu, Legaspi and other cities in the central Philippines.

With the islands already under martial law, Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma, former Japanese commander in the islands, called upon Filipinos "to rise as one to crush American aggressors."

With the "decisive battle . . . coming closer and closer," the Tokyo Weekly Economic Review urged Japanese to super efforts in war production, pointing out "the war situation requires more than we are producing now."

Strike at Islands
Land based bombers lent weight to the magazine's fears by striking freely and repeatedly at islands lying on an arc south and southeast of Japan—Chichi and Haha, in the Bonins, Iwo in the Volcanos and Marcus.

Their neutralizing raids were overshadowed by the grand total of damage done by Adm. William F. Halsey's Third fleet, incorporating Mitscher's carriers, since it went into action Aug. 30—122 Japanese ships and 61 small craft sunk, 137 ships and 109 boats damaged and 978 planes destroyed.

A cruiser of Halsey's force boldly shelled Malakal harbor in the heart of Palau, "Japan's Singapore," while a destroyer teamed with four gunboats in sinking 15 enemy landing craft trying to run reinforcements and supplies to the Japanese garrison driven into the northern quarter of Peleliu in southern Palau.

Chinese Successes
Even the hard pressed Chinese reported an unusual number of successes. Chungking announced the Japanese had abandoned Pingka, third major objective to fall in the Yunnan province campaign for the Burma road; been driven from a town 75 miles from Canton and stalled 40 miles from Kweilin, Allied base in southeast China. But a Nipponese column spearing southward from Chuanhsien threatened to isolate Kweilin and endanger Liuchow, another important traffic junction.

TODAY ON THE War Fronts

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Red army closed in on the Latvian capital of Riga today in the climax to a successful Baltic offensive, while dispatches telling of a local battle on the Lithuanian frontier of East Prussia heralded a possible large scale invasion drive on the Junker province.

A narrow land corridor still offered a chance of escape to the German garrison in Riga, but Red columns approaching from the north and east made large gains.

ROME, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Exploiting their success in the smashing through of the heart of the Germans' vaunted Gothic line, American troops of the Fifth army have punched to within 12 miles of the Bologna-Rimini highway—the Via Aemilia of the ancients, Allied headquarters announced today.

At the southeastern edge of the Po valley, however, the Eighth army ran into heavy fighting with Nazi infantry, paratroopers and armored forces desperately holding a line across the entrance to the broad plains to the north.

CAIRO, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Chaos is spreading among the Germans in southern Greece, Albania and Yugoslavia and military commentators said today the situation probably is a miniature of what the Allies will encounter in Germany itself.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A spokesman for Gen. Eisenhower told the 12,000,000 foreign workers in Germany today that "the hour for action has come" and gave them instructions for activities in the last round of the battle for Germany.

The workers were exhorted to beware of the Gestapo and not to undertake its powers.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Upward of 2,000 American heavy bombers and fighters struck today at five Nazi rail yards supplying the western front and the big chemical and synthetic oil works at Ludwigshafen.

The force, including 1,200 Flying Fortresses and Liberators, bombed one rail junction at Ludwigshafen and two each at Frankfurt and Coblenz—both Siegfried line supply depots on the Rhine. Nine bombers and three fighters were lost to ground fire. No enemy planes were encountered.

'Bob' Vaught Dies in Action In Belgium

Radio Operator And Drove Jeep For His Outfit

Pfc. Robert "Bob" A. Vaught, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vaught, route 5, has been killed in action, according to a message received by his parents Sunday, from Adjutant General J. A. Ulio. According to the message Pfc. Vaught was killed on Saturday, Sept. 2, in Belgium and it stated a letter would follow giving more of the details.

Pvt. Vaught was born in Waco, Texas, October 2, 1924. At the age of one year he came with his parents to Sedalia and had since resided here. He received his grade school education in Jefferson school and was graduated from Smith-Cotton high school in the class of 1942.

March 3, 1943 he entered the service. He received his training at Camp Campbell, Kentucky, and was assigned to the armored infantry. He was a radio operator and drove a jeep in his outfit. He arrived in England shortly after July 1 and soon afterwards went to the continent where he participated in the warfare.

Brother in Service
His father for several years was a custodian in Smith-Cotton high school but recently went to the Missouri Pacific shops where he has been working.

Surviving him besides his parents and his brother already mentioned are the following brothers and sisters: Miss Frances, Miss Patty, Miss Juanita, Nancy, Jackie, Charles and Jimmy Vaught all of the family home.

Also surviving are his grandmother, Mrs. Charles A. Deuel, 216 West Third street, his grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vaught of 523 East Howard street.

Charges FDR 'Slings Mud'
By Jack Bell
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey charged President Roosevelt today with "mud slinging," and announced that in tonight's campaign speech he will "undertake the unpleasant duty of ascertaining where the truth lies."

In a hotel news conference held shortly after he was greeted upon his arrival by a crowd of about 1,000 persons, the Republican presidential nominee was asked to comment on President Roosevelt's Saturday night campaign speech in which the president charged that Republicans were basing a large portion of their attack on the new deal on "fraud" and "falsehood."

"What do you think of Mr. Roosevelt's speech?" a reporter asked.

"I think it is a tragedy that the nominee for president of the United States should find it necessary to bolster a waning cause by importation from the language of our enemy and by sinking to the level of mud slinging in the use of such words as 'fraud' and 'falsehood,'" Dewey declared.

Bothwell Hospital Notes
John C. Cooper, Kansas City admitted for medical treatment.

he had had for twenty-five years and could not afford to live on a government salary.

Batt has been under fire because the parent SKF company in Sweden has been shipping ball-bearings to the Germans and without which the Nazis could not build airplanes. While Batt's SKF company in Philadelphia is in no way responsible for letting the Nazis have ball-bearings, many have felt that he might at least resign in protest against the policy of the Swedish affiliate.

However, he hasn't.

In contrast B. W. Taylor, who had been with SKF for more than twenty years, resigned because he could not stand having ball-bearings shipped to the Nazis from an affiliate company. He is now a lieutenant commander in the navy.

Also Major John F. Tawrescy, now with the Air Corps at Wright Field, resigned from SKF after 22 years of service because he could not stand the "foul odor." He had been assistant chief engineer of SKF for fifteen years.

Also R. W. Hirsch, manager of the Detroit district for SKF, resigned after twenty-seven years of service, and took a much smaller salary with an American company in Toledo.

If Batt should resign from SKF, it would be a terrible blow to the Swedes. His position as vice chairman of the War Production Board gives SKF prestige and helps to smudge over the black mark against them for shipping ball-bearings to Germany. But he will not give up his SKF salary.

Jesse Jones' Nephew
Just before the recent turbulent
Texas Democratic convention, Governor Coke Stevenson approached forthright ex-Governor Jimmy Allred, who was leading the fight for Roosevelt. Governor Stevenson had just spent a good part of a day with Jesse Jones in Washington and he said to Allred, in brief, "Jimmy, this is the governor's convention and I'm running for re-election. I'd like to ask one favor of you. I'd like to see George Butler appointed the chairman of the convention." Jimmy Allred almost exploded.

George Butler is Jesse Jones' nephew and the man who chairmaned the May Texas convention which appointed electors pledged not to vote for Roosevelt next November. So Allred replied: "Coke it's all I can do to keep them from lynching George Butler, let alone making him Democratic chairman."

Willkie's "Illness"
Wendell Willkie has been mysteriously laid up in a New York hospital. He is not really ill, but is reported recuperating from a long, nervous period during which he was resisting overtures from both Roosevelt and Dewey, and writing magazine articles on what the platforms of both parties should be.

It is suspected also that there may be a tincture of political illness about Willkie's sojourn in the hospital. He was supposed to try a case in California at just about this time, as the attorney for the Giannini's Bank of America. However, to be on the West Coast last week would have meant that he would have bumped headlong into Dewey, which would have been embarrassing for both. It might have looked as if he was cramping Dewey's style.

Also Willkie may be enjoying a diplomatic rest in the hospital in order to avoid the proposed meeting with Roosevelt before November. Actually he would like to confer with the president about plans for peace, but doesn't want to have it look too political.

Hull as Campaign Censor Nothing has leaked out about it, but Secretary Hull has sent orders down the line to key Democrats that he doesn't want foreign policy brought into the campaign
as a political issue by Roosevelt supporters.

Actually, Presidential advisers and several of Hull's fellow cabinet members are burnt up over the secretary of state's demand.
They point out that, despite any agreement Hull may have reached with John Foster Dulles, Dewey and other GOP speakers are talking foreign policy all over the place. They claim that, since the Republicans are using foreign policy as a campaign issue, Hull's policy is like fighting with one hand tied behind your back.

Blow-off came the other day
when Attorney General Biddle submitted a speech to the OWI for clearance. In the speech, he criticized Republican foreign policy before Pearl Harbor. Noting this, OWI informed Biddle's office that Hull had banned this subject in political speeches. One OWI official went even further and told Biddle aides that the state department objected to any attack on Dewey's ability to handle foreign policy because "it might make Dewey's handling of foreign affairs difficult if he became president."

Biddle's aides, however, refused to accept OWI's censorship. They demanded that Hull be asked specifically about the attorney general's speech. When it was referred to the secretary of state, he backed down and Biddle delivered the speech as planned.

VIII AFTER his shower, when he stood before the mirror and knotted his tie, Walt felt as young as he had ever felt. He was not the young buck who had courted Margaret Ross; but he had taken care of himself. He was still physically in the pink. He kept up with the times. He was a success in his business, respected, honored, popular. He was too old to go to the front in this war, but in his day in France he had not dodged wounds or death; they had dodged him. He had moved about so swiftly that few of Margaret's letters had reached him. But she was at the dock when his transport came in. And she held high for him to see—a baby!

When finally he was free to take her in his arms, she said:
"I, too, have not been idle."
"Why, you're only a kid!" he had laughed. "A kid with a kid!"
What is it—a he or a she?"
"A he—like his father, and named after him to carry on his glorious name."

That was the way she had talked of him then. But the boy had died and taken Walt's "glorious name" into the grave. It was an agony even to think of that loss.
Yet it had bound them together.
Years later she had borne a girl.
She would not name it Margaret, because, she said, one Margaret was enough in her lover's life. She took the name "Jennifer" from a book.

She had been a great reader
then; a great reader of romance and, a dweller in romance.
Walt was under such a spell of memory that he seemed to forget what she had since become.
As he drove home, he half expected that, as in those first years, his lithe, wild bride would run to fling her young body into his arms, kissing him, clenching him, babbling with delight in his return from the hateful office that had kept him from her all the long day long.

HIS key trembled in the lock as he opened the door. And as of old, he wanted to shout, "Meg!" Meg! But he was met by the eternal radio-blare she lived in.
The radio-turmoil brought Walt down the years with a mortal shock. The woman he lived with was not the girl he had married.
She did not rise from her chair, or even smile. Her eyes turned his way with a jaded indifference as he stood on the doormat, feeling bereft of something precious that he could not bear to lose.

He could not let his dream go without a struggle. He went to her and kissed her. She did not return his kiss or his words of endearment. She merely mumbled:
"What brings you home so early?"

"Homesick, I guess," he mumbled. She laughed that to scorn, but he went to the radio and cut out the noisy world to be with her. She snapped:
"Leave it alone, can't you? I'm listening to a serial."

Then abruptly she remembered she had a grievance. She seemed always to have one waiting for him.
"When that daughter of yours comes in—if ever she does—you'd better speak to her. She won't listen to me. Last night she didn't get in till this morning. It was the same the night before. I declare I don't know what this generation is coming to."

"What has our generation come to?" he was about to retort, but he heard Jennifer's young voice outside calling laughing goodbys to "Tom."

WHEN Jennifer came in she brought youth and beauty and delight, but her mother began to nag at her—like sullen Winter persecuting Spring. Walt went to his room to escape the ancient conflict, but he could hear Margaret's ancient reproaches:

"When I was young, girls obeyed their parents. And don't you waste that innocent look on me. It may fool your father, but it doesn't fool me. If you and your boy friends are up to no mischief why can't you receive 'em here like decent people do?"
"Young people like young people," Jennifer answered rebelliously.

"You go to other girls' homes.
Or so you say."
"The other girls' mothers keep out of sight. Or else, they keep up with the times."
"Oh, so you're ashamed of your mother!"

"You could be as bright as any of them, if you would."
"It's you yourself you're really ashamed of. When I was a girl no young man would have dared ask me to stay out late at night.
There was no gossip about me,
I can tell you."

"Oh, Mama, Mama, why do you have to talk like a dodo?"
"You speak to your own mother like she was a—a—I don't know what!"

"Neither do I," Jennifer laughed, but bitterly. "You may have been my mother once, but now you're just an I-don't-know-what!"

"Walter! Walter! Hilarity!" Margaret shrieked. "Do you hear what this ungrateful daughter of yours is saying to her own mother?"

"Oh yes, I hear it," Hilarity answered drearily. "And I'm sure the neighbors are all tuned in on your broadcast, too."

"I'm horribly sorry, Daddy," Jennifer said. "I apologize, Mama.
I try to be respectful but I can't seem to do anything to please
you. Weren't you ever a girl?
Daddy, was she like this when you married her?"
"Jennifer!" He had to scold her, to keep from admitting the half-breaking facts. Jennifer seemed to understand. He caught a look of pity in her eyes. She sighed. "Poor Daddy!" whirled and ran from the room.

Horace Mann PTA Meeting

Organization Pledged Support On Memorial

The Horace Mann Parent
Teacher association held its first meeting of the year Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the school auditorium with Mrs. L. D. Rice, presiding. The meeting was opened with singing of "America" led by Miss Ida May Redkey and with Miss Nell Longan at the piano.
The devotional was given by Mrs.
G. E. Blair.

Mrs. M. C. Hume, first vice president, resigned due to the fact that she has moved to Florida.
Mrs. J. H. Brooks was elected to fill the vacancy caused by her resignation and Mrs. F. J. Odell was elected third vice president.

It was voted to send Mrs. L. D.
Rice, president, as delegate to the state convention in Springfield on October 3, 4 and 5 with Mrs. J. H.
Brooks as alternate.

Support War Memorial
The PTA pledged its support to a new War Memorial fund to be sponsored by the American Legion.

Mrs. Frank Johnson was presented a gift by the PTA. Donnie Harrison played a clarinet solo.

A tea, under the direction of the hospitality chairman, Mrs. F.
J. Odell, was given to welcome the new members and the following new teachers: Miss Katherine Herrick, Grade 1, Mrs. H. A.

Seifert, Grade 4 and Miss Betty Stanfield, secretary who were introduced.

A lace table cloth covered the table and the PTA colors of blue and yellow were carried out in the flowers, candles and tea cakes.
Mrs. Clayton Dixon and Mrs. L.
D. Rice poured.

NEW SCIENTIFIC FINDINGS ABOUT HAY FEVER

● If you have hay fever, read the news that has certain scientists really excited.
There is scientific evidence that vitamin C, in some test cases, relieved the symptoms of hay fever. No medication mind you—merely a vitamin, a factor recommended for general health! Tests so far are not conclusive, but with hay fever here, they certainly indicate that anyone who has hay fever should give it a trial.
You're so much to gain. And results may be so quick and evident. To try it, get new Pierce's Special Vitamin Formula—handy tablets just developed to make it easy for you to get the large amounts of vitamin C used in the research plus the important factors of the B-Complex.
Factors that have to do with sound nerves,
good digestion and good appetite.
Read the directions on the blue package next time you're at your druggists and get a package. Just think what it means to you if they help your case. Ask for Pierce's Special Vitamin Formula—in the blue

Browns Are Still in the Running

But Detroit Will Have To Lose Before St. Louis Fans Can Draw A Full Breath

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's no longer a question of who will stop the Detroit Tigers—but how can they lose?

The American league leaders yesterday made it four straight over the Boston Red Sox, 9-5, to cling to their one-game edge over the St. Louis Browns with only seven games left to play against the second division Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators.

A rousing three-run ninth inning rally kept the Browns in the running with an uphill 3-2 triumph over the A's, but the New York Yankees were all but mathematically eliminated by falling behind Mel Harder of Cleveland 4-1.

As the campaign starts its final week everything favors the Tigers. They have won 24 and lost 13 to the A's and Senators while the Browns, who must battle the Yanks and Red Sox in their last seven games, have won only 18 and lost 19 to their first division foes.

"Hurricane" Harold Newhouser chalked up his 27th victory of the season as the Tigers humbled the Sox before 48,702 at Briggs stadium for the Tigers 9th triumph in their last ten starts and 22 of their last 27.

In coming from behind to nip the As, the Browns chalked up their fifth in a row behind Jack Kramer's effective twirling for his 16th victory of the year. Hank Christman doubled home the tying runs in the ninth, then scored the winning tally on an error.

The Chicago White Sox extended their winning streak to six straight by sweeping a twin bill from the Senators, 9-3 and 2-0. St. Louis' champion Cardinals became the first National League team to win over 100 games for three successive years when they took two from the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-3 in 16 innings and 1-0 in nine frames. Whitey Kurowski's homer gave Mort Cooper his 22nd triumph in the opener. Ted Wilks won his 17th against three defeats in the finale.

The Chicago Cubs won 4-3 on Bill Nicholson's 33rd homer, after Curt Davis racked up his tenth game for the Brooklyn Dodgers in the opener 10-3. Cincinnati took two close ones from Boston 2-1 and 1-0 on good pitching by Harry Gumbert and Arnold Carter.

Merchants Win 14 to 4 Over Marshall

Local Batters Have No Mercy on the Marshall Pitchers

The Sedalia Merchants went on a hitting spree at the expense of two Marshall pitchers and as a result won a 14 to 4 decision over the Marshall Merchants Sunday afternoon in a game played at Marshall.

The Sedalians who battled out a 2 to 1 decision over the Marshall club at Sedalia in an extra inning affair earlier in the season were hot with the willow Sunday sending drive after drive to the fence for base hits.

Jim Westhus started on the mound for Marshall and lasted until the seventh when the Sedalians bombarded him out of the box and Meyer his successor was hit hard.

"Lefty" Hal Green pitched easily throughout the game and although he was hit freely managed to tighten up when runners got in scoring position. The only serious threat the Marshall team made was in the second inning when Westhus hit a three-bagger with the bases full to score 3 runs.

For the Sedalians Ellsworth led the hitters with three for four and Green hit three for six including two doubles. For the Marshall team McKee collected three hits.

The Sedalia team played steady ball in the field giving Green excellent support.

Cridder and Livengood hit doubles and Woolford hit a triple with the bases full for Sedalia.

Next Sunday the Merchants will meet the Higginsville club at Liberty Park.

Jefferson PTA Meeting

The Jefferson P. T. A. held its first meeting of the year in the school Friday night, with the new president, Mrs. Verney Engholm presiding. During the business meeting, plans were made for a pie supper to be held next Thursday night. The president and vice-president were selected to represent the school at the P. T. A. convention. The president told Morris, lf.

The program was in charge of the entire seventh grade. They gave a play: "Pennies for Uncle Sam," with Wiley Walters as Uncle Sam, and Joyce Kell as a Red Cross Nurse.

The attendance award was won by Room 7, Edwin Martin, school principal introduced the teachers, and the meeting was adjourned. The social committee served refreshments in the dining room.

Better Homes Club in Meeting

The September meeting of the Maplewood Better Homes club was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Landers, R. R. 5.

At the noon hour a covered dish dinner was served to the members and several guests.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. William Williams, and roll call was answered by "Health Rules."

Mrs. Banning gave the devotional. The club voted to serve at the dance for Service men, October 21.

Mrs. Landers, health leader, introduced Miss Reba Gum, county health nurse, who gave an interesting and instructing talk on the subject, "Out of Infancy Into Childhood."

At the conclusion of her talk she answered all questions asked by those present.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Neef, Route 5.
